The farmer's work is not done in a day. It is a long and arduous task, requiring patience and perseverance. The farmer must be prepared to face all kinds of weather and conditions, and must be able to adapt to them. The farmer's work is not glamorous, but it is essential to the life of the nation. Without the farmer, we would have no food to eat. The farmer is the backbone of the nation, and we must respect and support him.
